

Superman.

For All Seasons

Folks tend to call him
"The Man of Steel"
nowadays.

I guess that he's the most famous person in the world...
Not that he was ever interested in being famous in the first place.

"Able to leap tall buildings
in a single bound."

"Change the course
of mighty rivers."

"Faster than a speeding bullet."

We knew he was
special, but...

People
will talk.

Believe it or not,
there was a time
before all that.

When he was just...

...a man's son.
